

Matthew Miller of Swix Sport USA is a proud supporter of NYSSRA and the NYS Jr. I-II Eastern Finals Team.

Swix has been serving people around the world with high performance products for more than sixty years. When racers win medals on Swix products, the company takes great pride in being a part of the medal winning performances. Swix history is packed with success, with scientific experience and knowledge, and with “medals.” These factors are valuable and hard core assets for Swix, and they make the company the most trusted within the business. Swix works continuously on research and product development. It is vital to us is to accumulate knowledge and to use it actively in our product portfolio. This is what makes Swix products so trusted.
